Third "White Palace" Lunch Room Opened

A crowd of men, women and children stood for fully a half-hour on the sidewalk in front of 1113 Pennsylvania avenue this morning and waited eagerly for the hands of the Postoffice clock to reach 11, the hour set for the opening of the new White Palace Luach Room. There was a sharp scramble for the distinction of being the first to enter, when the doors were thrown open, and as the patrons filed past the cashier's desk, each was presented with a handsome souvepir and a bunch of flowers Louis Mandes, the proprietor, was kept busy receiving congratulations on the new lunch room, which makes the third White Palace Lunch conducted by Mr.

Mandes here.

The new lunch room is large, well lighted and ventilated, and thoroughly equipped. It will accommodate in comfort 100 persons, and after some slight changes, which Mr. Mandes is to make within a few days, the capacity will be increased to accommodate 120.

The new establishment was elaborately decorated with flowers for the opening.
